CAREER PASSION

Game & Animation Production

I am passionate about games and animation because they bring storytelling, visuals, technology, and teamwork together. I enjoy seeing creative ideas grow from early concepts into real playable or visual experiences.

Problem Solving & Challenge Taking

I feel motivated when facing new challenges, whether I solve them independently or with my team. I enjoy removing obstacles, finding practical solutions, and growing through the process.

People-Centered Coordination

I enjoy working with people from different backgrounds and disciplines. I care about understanding how each teammate works, supporting their needs, and helping the team stay connected throughout production.

Fast Learning & Growth Mindset

I am always eager to learn new tools, workflows, and production methods. I adapt quickly in fast-paced environments and enjoy improving myself through hands-on projects.
